• ABOUT WESTPORT COUNTRY PLAYHOUSE

- Commitment Westport Country Playhouse sits on Paugussett land. The Playhouse sits on land once forcibly taken from the Paugussett people. The Westport Country Playhouse acknowledges the indigenous peoples and nations of the Paugussett that stewarded the land and waterways of Westport, Connecticut. We honor and respect the enduring relationship that exists between these peoples and nations and this land.
- Through the performing arts, we make connections between audience and artist, across time and distance, mentor and student, and within our community. Westport Country Playhouse is a non-profit that produces work from playwrights, performers, directors and designers from all backgrounds, entertaining audiences and exploring issues along the way. Through our New Works Initiative, we provide support and funds towards the development of new voices and new works. There are no boundaries to the creative thinking or the kinds of audiences we seek and excitement for theater that Westport Country Playhouse can build.
- Anti-Racism Statement
- We resolve to place anti-racism at the center of our work. We are committed to holding ourselves accountable to short and long-term goals, while realizing that this work has no endpoint and will evolve and change. We acknowledge that this is an educational process for which we ourselves are responsible.
